The bill as passed action by the Congregational council in order to move for a recess from five is, with but a slight modification, the same as reported by Mr. McCrary, of Iowa, from the committee on railways and canals, on the nineteenth of January. It enacts that all railroad lines carrying freight and passengers between the different States, whether owned by one or various corporations, shall be regarded as employed in commerce among the several States, and shall be liable for any violstion of this act. They are forbidden to charge more than a fair and reasonable rate for the transportation of freight or passengers, such rate to be ascertained and fixed by a board of railroad commissioners to be appointed by the President, with advice and consent of the senate, and to be residents of each of the nine judicial districts of the United States. They are to be disinterested persons, and not to have any inter-est in the stocks, bonds, or property of any railroad or any transportation com-pany. This board of railroad commissioners is to institute a thorough investigation and inquiry into the rates and tolls and compensation charged for transporting freights and passengers over each of such lines of railreads, and of the reasonableness thereof, and as soon as practicable after such an investigation and inquiry, to prepare for the owners and operators of each of such lines a seperate schedule of reasonable and maximum rates of charges for the transportation of passengers and freight on or ever said lines, respectively. The sched-ule is to be duly authenticated by the board of commissioners, and to be printed and kept posted up in each of the offices and departments of such railroad company, corporation or person. They may, from time to time, as often as circumstances may require, change and revise their schedule, and shall give no-
